

Application Process

1. Complete the 2024 Market Application (included in this document or available on our website) and sign the Market Agreement. All vendors are required to apply for acceptance each year, no automatic renewals. An application form must be completed and submitted to be considered, even if you have previously vended with FFFM before.
2. Send completed and signed application with a $30.00 non-refundable application fee payable to Field Fresh Farmers Market c/o Gwen Whitmore 11010 Baker Rd., Keymar, MD 21757.
3. All vendors must apply each year and be accepted. Applications are due no later than March 1, 2024.

Field Fresh Farmers Market Application Checklist

This application helps us learn more about you and your growing/production practices in addition to helping you understand what is important to us as market organizers and consumers. If you are attaching documents with the information we need, abbreviate your explanation and insert "see attached for more detail."

Applications are due no later than March 1, 2024. We will be making our decisions for the season by April 1, 2024. Late applications will be considered at any time, but please be advised that spaces and types of products needed may already be filled. Please use the following checklist to make sure your application is complete. All vendors must reapply each year.
